FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 5, 2010

At a special meeting this afternoon, the Danville City Council appointed Joe King as Interim City Manager. He will serve in that capacity until the City Council selects a permanent City Manager. The action was taken following the sudden death of City Manager Lyle Lacy.

Joe King has served as Deputy City Manager since June of last year and before that for seven years as Danville's Assistant City Manager for Utilities. King has 34 years of local government experience, including 14 years in city manager/county administrator positions in local governments in Virginia, Tennessee, Arkansas, Washington, and New Mexico.
